Fr. Cit's Column The Sundays that follow after the Easter season are Sundays of Solemnities of the Lord Jesus Christ. There are many exciting things that we have to look forward to in these celebrations. Like jewelry, these celebrations can be likened to special stones that decorate the whole jewelry. Each has a very special character and all of them make up a whole unity.

One favorite that I always look forward to is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). In our celebration of the Solemnity, which coincides fruit harvest and gathering, we offer before the altar all the fruits of our labor. Notice that in the celebration of the Mass, during the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the priest prays to God a prayer of grace: that all we put before the altar of God may be acceptable to him and make them holy.

Note that the offering we present before the altar of God is not limited to the bread of wine. In other cultures, they present before the altar from produce to their equivalent and anything in between. I find that tradition pretty close to the original church.

One time, a Hispanic family offered a basket of goodies. And then another time, a Hispanic group offered a basket of fruits. That thrilled me for it reminded me the beauty of the church I grew up in. That was precious.

Actually, what I am saying here is the richness of the church traditions. We celebrate these solemnities for a reason: that we are a church who remember the goodness of the Lord in Jesus Christ. We do these remembrances by keeping our traditions or by celebrating the solemnities faithfully.

Each of these celebrations is a solemnity. Meaning, each is special, different from the usual. How they are celebrated make them special to distinguish them from the casual and the normal. I invite you to make these coming Sundays special. I think, since we have been prevented to celebrate the Mass normally, the best way that we can make the coming Sundays special is to attend the coming festivals with joyful expectation. -30-

Los domingos que siguen después de la Pascua son domingos de solemnidades del Señor Jesucristo. Hay muchas cosas emocionantes que tenemos que esperar en estas celebraciones. Como una joya, estas celebraciones se pueden comparar con piedras especiales que decoran toda la joyería. Cada uno tiene un carácter muy especial y todos ellos constituyen toda una unidad. Uno de los favoritos que siempre espero es la solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (Corpus Christi). En nuestra celebración de la Solemnidad, que coincide con la cosecha y recolección de frutas, ofrecemos ante el altar todos los frutos de nuestro trabajo. Observe que en la celebración de la misa, durante la liturgia de la Eucaristía, el sacerdote ora a Dios una oración de gracia: que todo lo que ponemos ante el altar de Dios sea aceptable para él y los haga santos.

Tenga en cuenta que la ofrenda que presentamos ante el altar de Dios no se limita al pan de vino. En otras culturas, presentan ante el altar desde productos hasta su equivalente y cualquier cosa en el medio. Encuentro esa tradición muy cerca de la iglesia original.

Una vez, una familia hispana ofreció una cesta de golosinas. Y luego, en otra ocasión, un grupo hispano ofreció una cesta de frutas. Eso me emocionó porque me recordó la belleza de la iglesia en la que crecí. Eso fue precioso.

En realidad, lo que estoy diciendo aquí es la riqueza de las tradiciones de la iglesia. Celebramos estas solemnidades por una razón: que somos una iglesia que recuerda la bondad del Señor en Jesucristo. Hacemos estos recuerdos manteniendo nuestras tradiciones o celebrando las solemnidades fielmente.

Cada una de estas celebraciones es una solemnidad. Es decir, cada uno es especial, diferente de lo habitual. La forma en que se celebran los hacen especiales para distinguirlos de lo casual y lo normal.

Le invito a hacer que estos próximos domingos sean especiales. Creo que, puesto que se nos ha impedido celebrar la Misa normalmente, la mejor manera de hacer que los próximos domingos sean especiales es asistir a los próximos festivales con alegre expectativa. -30-

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

MAY 30, 2021

The Mystery of the Holy Trinity

"The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity leads us to contemplate the mystery of God who unceasingly creates, redeems and sanctifies, always with love and through love."—Pope Francis, May 27, 2018

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and life. God reveals himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The doctrine of the Trinity includes three truths of faith.

First, the Trinity is One. We do not speak of three gods but of one God. Each of the Persons is fully God. They are a unity of Persons in one divine nature.

Second, the Divine Persons are distinct from each other. Father, Son, and Spirit are not three appearances or modes of God, but three identifiable persons, each fully God in a way distinct from the others.

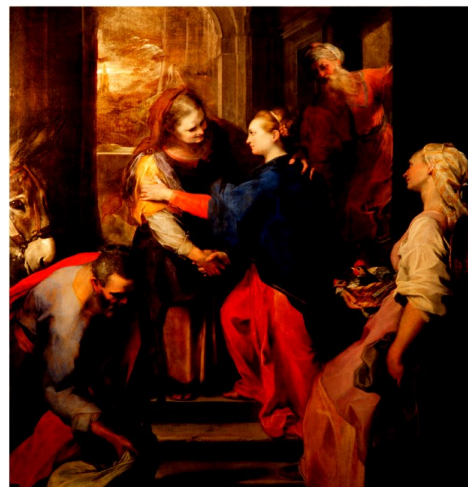

Third, the Divine Persons are in relation to each other. The distinction of each is understood only in reference to the others. The Father cannot be the Father without the Son, nor can the Son be the Son without the Father. The Holy Spirit is related to the Father and the Son who both send him forth.

All Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. The Trinity illumines all the other mysteries of faith.

The Feast of the Visitation of Mary

Monday, May 31, 2021

This feast commemorates the three-month visit of Mary with her elderly cousin Elizabeth during Mary's pregnancy with Jesus and Elizabeth's with John the Baptist. The story appears in the first chapter of Luke's Gospel. It recounts Elizabeth's Spirit-filled greeting, acknowledging Mary as "the mother of my Lord," and Mary's beautiful response, the Magnificat, which begins, "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord." Introduced by the Franciscans in 1263, the feast became universal in the 16th century.
