and poor people. It has welcomed within its doors many people who were neglected, abandoned and forgotten by mainstream society. KALINGA is an acronym for the programs offered by the center: Kain-Aral-Ligo-naNG-Ayos (Eat, Learn, Bathe, to be Well). We envision a society where nobody is left behind, and the dignity of the all people is upheld, respected, secured, and celebrated. Its overall objective is to provide those who are poverty stricken with holistic, systematic and dignified care.

Fr. Cit's Column

Food and the risen Jesus. On the shore, a grill caught the attention of the apostles. Fish were on the grill. There was bread too. Jesus invited them to eat breakfast with him. Food is an opportunity (maybe an excuse) to celebrate ties, relationships and alliances. In the part of the world where I grew up, I was accustomed to meet people at table. "Come, dine with us." It does not matter what's on the table, whether there's enough, or how things would pan out with what's available. The thing is, central to this communion, the joy of sharing forges strength, builds up alliances and enforces the good and peace. In this encounter at least, Peter and the disciples have confirmed that Jesus has risen. That also tells that the things that were said about Jesus were true. That strengthened their alliance as disciples and their commitment to witness to Christ. Thus, the growing and strengthening of the communities that were started from the apostles. What I remember, we were extravagant. I knew we did not have much. It was quite a stretch to host a feast. We seldom did. But whenever we did, there was always plenty of food. But what was quite an exception, they would put on a feast when surprise visits happen.

Yes, unannounced visits are normal to us. We do not mind. In fact, we feel honored when we are visited by friends or relatives, even strangers. The beautiful thing that happens in this communion is the encounter. In the encounter, we are a family without blood distinctions or lines or relations. Only united by the beauty of sharing. That's how Jesus invited his disciples and enjoined them to be proclaimers of Good News. Sharing. They share their lives, their love for God, their experience of everlasting grace. That's what we do at Mass. That's what we relive in the commemoration of Christ's offering his body and blood as food and drink.—30—
La comida y Jesús resucitado. En la orilla, una parrilla llamó la atención de los apóstoles. El pescado estaba en la parrilla. También había pan. Jesús los invitó a desayunar con él. La comida es una oportunidad (tal vez una excusa) para celebrar lazos, relaciones y alianzas. En esa parte del mundo donde crecí, estaba acostumbrado a encontrarme con gente en la mesa. "Ven, cena con nosotros". No importa lo que esté sobre la mesa, si hay suficiente o cómo se desarrollarían las cosas con lo que está disponible. La cuestión es que, en el centro de esta comunión, la alegría de compartir forja fuerzas, construye alianzas y hace cumplir el bien y la paz.

Al menos en este encuentro, Pedro y los discípulos han confirmado que Jesús ha resucitado. Eso también dice que las cosas que se dijeron acerca de Jesús eran verdaderas. Eso fortaleció su alianza como discípulos y su compromiso de dar testimonio de Cristo. Así, el crecimiento y fortalecimiento de las comunidades que se iniciaron desde los apóstoles. Lo que recuerdo, éramos extravagantes. Sabía que no teníamos mucho. Fue todo un tramo para organizar una fiesta. Rara vez lo hacíamos. Pero cada vez que lo hacíamos, siempre había mucha comida. Pero lo que era una excepción, se ponían de fiesta cuando se producían visitas sorpresa. Sí, las visitas sin previo aviso son normales para nosotros. No nos importa. De hecho, nos sentimos honrados cuando nos visitan amigos o familiares, incluso extraños. Lo hermoso que sucede en esta comunión es el encuentro. En el encuentro, vivimos una familia sin distinciones de sangre ni líneas ni relaciones. Sólo unidos por la belleza de compartir. Así es como Jesús invitó a sus discípulos y los exhortó a ser proclamadores de la Buena Nueva. Compartición. Comparten sus vidas, su amor por Dios, su experiencia de gracia eterna. Eso es lo que hacemos en la misa. Eso es lo que revivimos en la conmemoración de la ofrenda de Cristo de su cuerpo y sangre como alimento y bebida.—30—

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Visiting the Homebound: Making visits to people who cannot get to Mass is a special ministry. It involves a social time for many and a chance to pray with and for the needs of that person. There is also a short rite used when the Holy Eucharist is given. If you would like to be a part of this team, call the office 503-829-2080.

Youth Ministry: This important ministry is in need of an energetic and charismatic leader with a great crew of volunteers to organize a program attractive to young people in building their faith. Contact the office (503-829-2080) if you can help in organizing this ministry.

Religious Education: We always need good people to teach our children about the Catholic Faith and to prepare them for receiving the Sacraments. No formal training is needed but some in-house training will be given. If interested, but unsure, at least think about becoming a teacher's aide. You will get a lot out of this ministry - it's fun and enlightening. Contact Miguel Serrano at 503-829-2880.

Adoration: Every Thursday, starting with 9:00am Mass and ending with Benediction at 8:00pm. You are welcome whenever it's convenient for you or volunteer for a specific time to spend one hour with Our Lord. Call the office 503-829-2080 if you would like to be a volunteer.

Altar Society: The Altar Society oversees the reverent care of the altar as well as maintaining the plants and flower arrangements that grace the sides of the tabernacle. The Altar Society also sponsors fundraising events as well as community gathering events. We meet each month on the 1st Tuesday at 10:00am and the 1st Thursday at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall. All the ladies of the church are members and invited to come!

Knights of Columbus: Is a national fraternity group of men who share with others in the parish. We have activities and events throughout the year. We are involved in the parish and community. For more information contact Doug Walkup 503-702-3603.

St. Vincent de Paul: Is a food distribution to those families in need. Distribution is once a month on the 3rd Tuesday of the month in the parish hall. Volunteers set up on the previous Monday night. For more information call Roy Salvetti at 503-568-2636.

Music: We always need people to join our choirs. They practice on Wednesday nights at 6:30pm. Call Steve or Claire Ferlan 503-829-9402 or Jim or Janell Casey 503-730-1900 for more information.

Weeding, pruning, mowing or planting: The Church grounds (the Campus) are always in need of help. You can choose a portion of the campus to do your thing in. Or, if you have equipment you can help maintain the larger grassy areas. Call the office (503-829-2080) to discuss the seasonal needs.

The Auction: We always need a good leader and a strong auction committee. But there are almost a hundred other volunteers needed to help prepare and serve the meal, to prepare hors d'oeuvres, to help with registrations, to collect donations, to set up displays and many more tasks. Call Carol Freeman at 503-329-0928 for more information.

The 4th of July Chicken Barbecue: This fun event can always use volunteers. Our Knights of Columbus men are in charge of cooking but they can always use help with serving and selling meals. Contact Jim Casey 971-226-3949 for more information.
