Fr. Cit's Column

Daddy's boy. I am my Dad's boy. I can claim that because he gave me his first name. He did not give it to his firstborn. He waited until his third son was born. I am his junior. I am my father's personification. Many said I look like him. My eyes, my ears, my face, the way I look, the way I stand, the way I think. I got everything my father has. I am not sure if it was coincidence that I am my father's namesake. Personally, I did not like it. I believed I was totally opposite my father. Fact is, I did all under my power to be different from my father. I did not hate my father. We were not close. We did not have a very special rapport, if it was to be compared to his rapport to my other siblings. But I have several fond memories of him. Every four o'clock in the morning, he would call me from bed and we would go to the village's water storage to bathe and collect water. Those mornings were great time to be each other's company and helper. We did not talk a lot, as it was very normal for him to say only a few words. But despite that, I felt he was there, that he knew me, and I was not an unwanted son. That was important to me. That was more than enough. You see, since he was a man of few words, I have no direct quotes to share. As far as I remember, he would use words like here, there, come, go, yes, no. And then a lot of his non-verbal communications were significant. I knew when he was not his best. At every mistake any one of us did, he would clench his jaws and raise his brows to manifest his displeasure or disagreement. And if he was not heeded, he would go find his belt and give out a warning. Toughen up. Be ready for the challenge of life. Be successful in your endeavors, These were his consistent reminders to us. He showed to us not to walk on the path he trod. Now, I am sure, from above where he now lives, he can tell anyone I am his daddy's boy.-30- El chico de papá. Soy el niño de mi padre. Puedo afirmar eso porque me dio su nombre. Él no lo dio a su primogénito. Esperé hasta que nació su tercer hijo. Yo soy su junior. Soy la personificación de mi padre. Muchos dijeron que me parezco a él. Mis ojos, mis oídos, mi cara, la forma en que miro, la forma en que estoy de pie, la forma en que pienso. Tengo todo lo que mi padre tiene. No estoy seguro de si fue una coincidencia que yo fuera el homónimo de mi padre. Personalmente, no me gustó. Creía que estaba totalmente enfrente de mi padre. El hecho es que hice todo lo posible por ser diferente de mi padre. No odiaba a mi padre. No éramos íntimos. No teníamos una relación muy especial, si se comparaba con su relación con mis otros hermanos. Pero tengo varios buenos recuerdos de él. Cada cuatro de la mañana, me llamaba desde la cama y íbamos al almacén de agua del pueblo para bañarnos y recoger agua. Esas mañanas eran un gran momento para ser la compañía y el ayudante del otro. No hablamos mucho, ya que era muy normal que dijera solo unas pocas palabras. Pero a pesar de eso, sentí que él estaba allí, que me conocía y que yo no era un hijo no deseado. Eso era importante para mí. Eso fue más que suficiente. Verás, como era un hombre de pocas palabras, no tengo citas directas para compartir. Por lo que recuerdo, usaba palabras como aquí, allá, ven, ve, sí, no. Y luego muchas de sus comunicaciones no verbales fueron significativas. Sabía cuándo no era su mejor. Ante cada error que cualquiera de nosotros cometía, él apretaba sus mandíbulas y levantaba las cejas para manifestar su disgusto o desacuerdo. Y si no se le hacía caso, iba a buscar su cinturón y daba una advertencia. Endurecerse. Prepárate para el desafío de la vida. Ten éxito en tus esfuerzos, estos fueron sus recordatorios constantes para nosotros. Nos mostró que no camináramos por el camino que pisó. Ahora, estoy seguro, desde arriba donde vive ahora, puede decirle a cualquiera que soy el hijo de su papá.-30-

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Visiting the Homebound: Making visits to people who cannot get to Mass is a special ministry. It involves a social time for many and a chance to pray with and for the needs of that person. There is also a short rite used when the Holy Eucharist is given. If you would like to be a part of this team, call the office 503-829-2080.

Youth Ministry: This important ministry is in need of an energetic and charismatic leader with a great crew of volunteers to organize a program attractive to young people in building their faith. Contact the office (503-829-2080) if you can help in organizing this ministry.

Religious Education: We always need good people to teach our children about the Catholic Faith and to prepare them for receiving the Sacraments. No formal training is needed but some in-house training will be given. If interested, but unsure, at least think about becoming a teacher's aide. You will get a lot out of this ministry - it's fun and enlightening. Contact Miguel Serrano at 503-829-2880.

Adoration: Every Thursday, starting with 9:00am Mass and ending with Benediction at 8:00pm. You are welcome whenever it's convenient for you or volunteer for a specific time to spend one hour with Our Lord. Call the office 503-829-2080 if you would like to be a volunteer.

Altar Society: The Altar Society oversees the reverent care of the altar as well as maintaining the plants and flower arrangements that grace the sides of the tabernacle. The Altar Society also sponsors fundraising events as well as community gathering events. We meet each month on the 1st Tuesday at 10:00am and the 1st Thursday at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall. All the ladies of the church are members and invited to come!

Knights of Columbus: Is a national fraternity group of men who share with others in the parish. We have activities and events throughout the year. We are involved in the parish and community. For more information contact Doug Walkup 503-702-3603.

St. Vincent de Paul: Is a food distribution to those families in need. Distribution is once a month on the 3rd Tuesday of the month in the parish hall. Volunteers set up on the previous Monday night. For more information call Roy Salvetti at 503-568-2636.

Music: We always need people to join our choirs. They practice on Wednesday nights at 6:00pm. Call Steve or Claire Ferlan 503-829-9402 or Jim or Janell Casey 503-730-1900 for more information.

Weeding, pruning, mowing or planting: The Church grounds (the Campus) are always in need of help. You can choose a portion of the campus to do your thing in. Or, if you have equipment you can help maintain the larger grassy areas. Call the office (503-829-2080) to discuss the seasonal needs.

The Auction: We always need a good leader and a strong auction committee. But there are almost a hundred other volunteers needed to help prepare and serve the meal, to prepare hors d'oeuvres, to help with registrations, to collect donations, to set up displays and many more tasks. Call Carol Freeman at 503-329-0928 for more information.

The 4th of July Chicken Barbecue: This fun event can always use volunteers. Our Knights of Columbus men are in charge of cooking but they can always use help with serving and selling meals. Contact Jim Carey 971-226-3949 for more information.
