Fr. Cit's Column

I am used to living a simple life. Born to a family without wealth, we can't ask for more. Often, we have to struggle to live decently, for our resources are depleted. Have you experienced to share a hard boiled egg with your siblings? Two hard boiled eggs for seven children? Despite that, our parents taught us to be decent and to want not for more. We were disciplined not to desire for what the other owns. Until we are offered by the other of anything, we should not ask or demand.

I remember, one evening, I brought home some sweets. I was lucky to receive it from the prize our group won at a school contest. I took it home to share. When I gave it to my Mom, she asked questions verifying where I got an expensive candy. She did not believe me. The candy was left sitting on our dining table until, without anyone's knowledge, was gone.

I did not fret. It was not important. That lesson had a big impact in my life. Now, I have enough. Sometimes they exceed my need. And my excess makes me feel for those who have less or have nothing. "If only I can" is usually the thought in mind thinking about the poverty around the world, especially in the Philippines. I mean, is there a way I can drop the excess food I have in my refrigerator to the Philippines through a tunnel? That would really be nice.

I know that is a ridiculous idea, however it bespeaks of a hope for those whose plight is difficult. I know that situation very well. I hurt for them. And if I go back to that kind of life, I have no trouble living it again.

For St. Paul, if God wills he suffers a hard life or enjoys a prosperous life, he will gladly accept. God blessed him, and even in his imprisonment, he does not worry because God loves him, the people he ministered are there to give him consolation. -30-

Estoy acostumbrado a vivir una vida sencilla. Nacido en el seno de una familia sin riquezas, no se puede pedir más. A menudo, tenemos que luchar para vivir decentemente porque nuestros recursos se agotan. ¿Has tenido la experiencia de compartir un huevo duro con tus hermanos? ¿Dos huevos duros para siete niños? A pesar de eso, nuestros padres nos enseñaron a ser decentes y a no querer más. Fuimos disciplinados para no desear lo que el otro posee. Hasta que el otro no nos ofrezca nada, no debemos pedir ni exigir.

Recuerdo que, una noche, llevé a casa unos dulces. Tuve la suerte de recibirlo del premio que nuestro grupo ganó en un concurso escolar. Me lo llevé a casa para compartirlo. Cuando se lo di a mi mamá, me hizo preguntas para verificar de dónde había sacado un caramelo caro. Ella no me creyó. Los dulces se dejaron en nuestra mesa de comedor hasta que, sin que nadie lo supiera, desaparecieron.

No me preocupé. No era importante. Esa lección tiene un gran impacto en mi vida. Ahora, ya tengo suficiente. A veces superan mi necesidad. Y mi exceso me hace sentir por los que tienen menos o no tienen nada. "Si tan solo puedo" suele ser el pensamiento en mente al pensar en la pobreza en todo el mundo, especialmente en Filipinas. Quiero decir, ¿hay alguna manera de dejar caer el exceso de comida que tengo en mi refrigerador a Filipinas a través de un túnel? Eso sería muy bueno.

Sé que es una idea ridícula, sin embargo, habla de una esperanza para aquellos cuya difícil situación es desafiante. Conocía muy bien esa situación. Me duele por ellos. Y si vuelvo a ese tipo de vida, no tengo problemas para vivirla de nuevo. -30-

For the entire month of November, we will pray for the souls. Your departed loved ones' names may be enrolled in the book of the dead. The altar will be set in the narthex.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Visiting the Homebound: Making visits to people who cannot get to Mass is a special ministry. It involves a social time for many and a chance to pray with and for the needs of that person. There is also a short rite used when the Holy Eucharist is given. If you would like to be a part of this team, call the office 503-829-2080.

Youth Ministry: This important ministry is in need of an energetic and charismatic leader with a great crew of volunteers to organize a program attractive to young people in building their faith. Contact the office (503-829-2080) if you can help in organizing this ministry.

Religious Education: We always need good people to teach our children about the Catholic Faith and to prepare them for receiving the Sacraments. No formal training is needed but some in-house training will be given. If interested, but unsure, at least think about becoming a teacher's aide. You will get a lot out of this ministry - it's fun and enlightening. Contact Miguel Serrano at 503-829-2880.

Adoration: Every Thursday, starting with 9:00am Mass and ending with Benediction at 8:00pm. You are welcome whenever it's convenient for you or volunteer for a specific time to spend one hour with Our Lord. Call the office 503-829-2080 if you would like to be a volunteer.

Altar Society: The Altar Society oversees the reverent care of the altar as well as maintaining the plants and flower arrangements that grace the sides of the tabernacle. The Altar Society also sponsors fundraising events as well as community gathering events. We meet each month on the 1st Tuesday at 10:00am and the 1st Thursday at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall. All the ladies of the church are members and invited to come!

Knights of Columbus: Is a national fraternity group of men who share with others in the parish. We have activities and events throughout the year. We are involved in the parish and community. For more information contact Jim Casey 503-730-1900.

St. Vincent de Paul: Is a food distribution to those families in need. Distribution is once a month on the 3rd Tuesday of the month in the parish hall. Volunteers set up on the previous Monday night. For more information call Roy Salvetti at 503-568-2636.

Music: We always need people to join our choirs. They practice on Wednesday nights at 6:00pm. Call Steve or Claire Ferlan 503-829-9402 or Jim or Janell Casey 503-730-1900 for more information.

Weeding, pruning, mowing or planting: The Church grounds (the Campus) are always in need of help. You can choose a portion of the campus to do your thing in. Or, if you have equipment you can help maintain the larger grassy areas. Call the office (503-829-2080) to discuss the seasonal needs.

The Auction: We always need a good leader and a strong auction committee. But there are almost a hundred other volunteers needed to help prepare and serve the meal, to prepare hors d'oeuvres, to help with registrations, to collect donations, to set up displays and many more tasks. Call Carol Freeman at 503-329-0928 for more information.

The 4th of July Chicken Barbecue: This fun event can always use volunteers. Our Knights of Columbus men are in charge of cooking but they can always use help with serving and selling meals. Contact Scott Scofield (262-960-5717) for more information.

NEXT WEEKEND we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

EL PRÓXIMO FIN DE SEMANA celebraremos el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. El Papa Francisco invita a toda la Iglesia a apoyar a las diócesis en África, Asia, las Islas del Pacífico y partes de América Latina y Europa, donde sacerdotes, líderes religiosos y líderes laicos sirven a las comunidades más vulnerables del mundo. Por favor sigan orando por las misiones del Papa y sean generosos en la colecta de la semana entrante para la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe.
