THE SCALLOP

Fr. Cit's Column God's dwelling place. Apart from the church, which I learned from the start as God's house, I have found a special place I called God's dwelling place.

I was a boy of 10 when I was brought by my Grandma to visit her son's farm. It is on a higher ground we have to walk for almost an hour from the lowland to his farm. From his farm, overlooking the eastern section is the valley, the view is majestic. There was serenity filling my heart. It was a sure delight penetrating my being that I made a resolution to come back to this place when possible. I actually made many deliberate personal decisions to go back to that place on my own.

During my novitiate formation, we made our personal altar out in the open, on the garden inside the SVD Novitiate property. The place was to be a sanctuary where I met God. Other than it being a place of work, it would actually become a place of prayer and meditation.

I built a sanctuary. I dug a little hole in the ground and from it oozed a little amount of water. And then I planted the sanctuary with plants and flowers. The cistern with water looked like a small well, when the rain poured it was full, and then the water level dropped to the floor when the season was dry. Overall, that little sanctuary reminded me of that haven on the farm of my uncle I used to visit for peace and quiet.

I named that sanctuary Psalm 42. The water is God. I am the parched land. The sanctuary is the church. The weather (be it pouring rain or sun) is the work of God, always there however I need it. Sometimes it is full. Sometimes it is sparse. But God has no limitation. It is my limitation that makes the water rise to the brim or dip to the floor of the ground.

One thing is certain, God meets us wherever. -30-

La morada de Dios. Aparte de la iglesia, que aprendí desde el principio como la casa de Dios, he encontrado un lugar especial que yo mismo llamé la morada de Dios. Era un niño de 10 años cuando mi abuela me llevó a visitar la granja de su hijo. Es en un terreno más alto que tenemos que caminar durante casi una hora desde las tierras bajas hasta su granja. Desde su finca, con vistas a la sección oriental se encuentra el valle. La vista es majestuosa. Había serenidad llenando mi corazón. Era un deleite seguro penetrar en mi ser que tomé la resolución de volver al lugar cuando fuera posible. De hecho, tomé muchas decisiones personales deliberadas para volver al lugar por mi cuenta.

Durante mi formación en el noviciado, hicimos nuestro altar personal al aire libre, en el jardín dentro de la propiedad del Noviciado SVD. El lugar debía ser convertido en un santuario donde encontrarse con Dios. Aparte de ser un lugar de trabajo, en realidad debería convertirse en un lugar de oración y meditación.

Construí un santuario en él. Cavé un pequeño hoyo en el suelo y de él rezuma una pequeña cantidad de agua. Y luego planté el santuario con plantas y flores. La cisterna con agua parecía un pequeño pozo, cuando llovía estaba llena, y luego el nivel del agua bajaba al suelo cuando la estación estaba seca. En general, ese pequeño santuario me recordó a ese refugio en la granja de mi tío que solía visitar en busca de paz y tranquilidad.

Llamé a ese santuario Salmo 41. El agua es Dios. Yo soy la tierra reseca. El santuario es la iglesia. El clima (ya sea lluvia torrencial o sol) es obra de Dios, siempre ahí, sin embargo, lo necesito. A veces está lleno. A veces es escaso. Pero Dios no tiene limitación. Es mi limitación la que hace que el agua suba hasta el borde o se hunda hasta el suelo del suelo.

Una cosa es cierta, Dios nos encuentra dondequiera que esté.-30-

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Visiting the Homebound: Making visits to people who cannot get to Mass is a special ministry. It involves a social time for many and a chance to pray with and for the needs of that person. There is also a short rite used when the Holy Eucharist is given. If you would like to be a part of this team, call the office 503-829-2080.

Youth Ministry: This important ministry is in need of an energetic and charismatic leader with a great crew of volunteers to organize a program attractive to young people in building their faith. Contact the office (503-829-2080) if you can help in organizing this ministry.

Religious Education: We always need good people to teach our children about the Catholic Faith and to prepare them for receiving the Sacraments. No formal training is needed but some in-house training will be given. If interested, but unsure, at least think about becoming a teacher's aide. You will get a lot out of this ministry - it's fun and enlightening. Contact Miguel Serrano at 503-829-2880.

Adoration: Every Thursday, starting with 9:00am Mass and ending with Benediction at 8:00pm. You are welcome whenever it's convenient for you or volunteer for a specific time to spend one hour with Our Lord. Call the office 503-829-2080 if you would like to be a volunteer.

Altar Society: The Altar Society oversees the reverent care of the altar as well as maintaining the plants and flower arrangements that grace the sides of the tabernacle. The Altar Society also sponsors fundraising events as well as community gathering events. We meet each month on the 1st Tuesday at 10:00am and the 1st Thursday at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall. All the ladies of the church are members and invited to come!

Knights of Columbus: Is a national fraternity group of men who share with others in the parish. We have activities and events throughout the year. We are involved in the parish and community. For more information contact Jim Casey 503-730-1900.

St. Vincent de Paul: Is a food distribution to those families in need. Distribution is once a month on the 3rd Tuesday of the month in the parish hall. Volunteers set up on the previous Monday night. For more information call Roy Salvetti at 503-568-2636.

Music: We always need people to join our choirs. They practice on Wednesday nights at 6:00pm. Call Steve or Claire Ferlan 503-829-9402 or Jim or Janell Casey 503-730-1900 for more information.

Weeding, pruning, mowing or planting: The Church grounds (the Campus) are always in need of help. You can choose a portion of the campus to do your thing in. Or, if you have equipment you can help maintain the larger grassy areas. Call the office (503-829-2080) to discuss the seasonal needs.

The Auction: We always need a good leader and a strong auction committee. But there are almost a hundred other volunteers needed to help prepare and serve the meal, to prepare hors d'oeuvres, to help with registrations, to collect donations, to set up displays and many more tasks. Call Carol Freeman at 503-329-0928 for more information.

The 4th of July Chicken Barbecue: This fun event can always use volunteers. Our Knights of Columbus men are in charge of cooking but they can always use help with serving and selling meals. Contact Scott Scofield (262-960-5717) for more information.
